

Honoris Causa

Visual Media Creations

Specialization in

Directing Documentaries and TV Program

A.K. Hari Kumar

- Encouraged the students in the rural areas to score high marks in their exams, by awarding cash prizes and certificates to meritorious students.
- Conducted mass hygiene programs in rural women and created in their minds of the importance of health, hygiene and cleanliness.
- Conducted door to door campaigns and awareness programmes in slums to eradicate mosquitoes to prevent Dengue.
- Donated tricycles to the differently abled women on New Year's Day.
- Relocation of unauthorised slum dwellers to Government approved lands. Identifying and protecting children working in hotels, bakery and other fields (Child Labour) and encouraging them to enrol in Schools.
- Protecting the rights of the widows and aged people, the physically handicapped by providing services extended by the Government.
- She contributes for the development of the community by assisting them to get
- government facilities.
- Has helped rural people to get bank loans and other government facilities under different rural schemes of Government
- She has a broad contribution to social and service oriented motives to the unemployed women and poor people in rural areas.
- Recipient of many prestigious awards from State and Central Government for her involvement in Disaster Management effected by cyclone in parts of Tamilnadu & Kerala
- Has distributed many study materials and uniforms to the needy and poor children in rural Tamilnadu.