

Honoris Causa

Yogadharsana & Psychology

Specialization in

Counselling & Pranic Healing

N. Nagendra Prasad

- He is specialized in Pranic healing through spiritual elements found in Indian Yogic philosophy especially in its healing practice.
- His approach to treating the patients is unique which is delicately balanced in spiritual–psycho–physical systems. It is orchestrated in tune with the harmony of both patient and the therapist.
- He applies Pranic healing to many forms of aches and pains both chronic and allergies, which can be treated to others but also, can be treated to oneself.
- He conducts seminars and workshops to many people who are average in intelligence and patience by developing their confidence and observance of natural laws of the body.
- He emphasises that Pranic energy healing is one of the least expensive and most productive means in making WHO's dream of “Health for All” a reality.
- Has written two research papers on deep study and experiences of Pranic healing based on Yoga Ontology and Epistemology.
- Has trained many people all over India in the field of Pranic healing and Yogic Science
- He has a unique enthusiasm and passion towards
- teaching Yoga which has positively impacted the lives of people.
- He conducts free seminars and camps on
- “Health through Naturopathy” to people in rural areas and also training on subjects like food and nutrition, hydrotherapy, acupressure, meditation