

Honoris Causa

Literature (Kannada)

Specialization in

Writing Novels & Poems

Venkatesh Prabhu T.K.

- Started his writing career at an very early age of 18yrs by composing a Poetry collection.cMany of his short stories, poetries, Novel's are published in leading News Journal's and Magazines.
- His famous play was enacted by the reputed Drama troupe for a very long period which depicted the drawbacks in Education System
- He has written Twelve novels in Kannada and two novels in English. A textbook written by him on "Computer Literacy Test" for State Government Employees is been still used in many Governmental Departments to enhance the Computer Literacy of the Personnel.
- Organised workshops in schools and colleges to enhance awareness about languages and its existence.
- He is an Prolific writer of literary and short stories. Has conducted many lectures and paper presentations at state level on various topics related to Kannada Literature.
- Has been presiding many state level literacy academies and committees.
- He has inculcated an positive attitude of Social Service in the field of education, employment, culture & Literature.
- Has written many innovative methods of street plays, resulting in increased social awareness and responsibilities among youngsters.