

Virija Pandurang
Rao Kampli

Honoris Causa

Education

Specialization in

Dasa Sahitya

- She is a teacher in Kannada Literature for over 4 decades. Her interest towards the Spiritual awakening led her to learn and grow as a Professional in different aspects of Religious Empowerment.
- She
- Released and distributed free books and CDs to promote the spread of Haridasa Literature, spirituality and culture in the society Promoted, supported and accelerated the growth of societal awareness of our rich Haridasa heritage and Literature through the formation of a non-profit organization.
- She has hosted many musical programs, spiritual discourses by eminent scholars and honorary programs to recognize unique service to society by doctors, by researchers in the field of Dasa Literature and heritage, social workers and scientist.
- Virija have always been on the forefront among her friends as a kid and supporting the religious origin and has taught many children and youngsters in her leisure time.
- It's a remarkable achievement as a forerunner always being an individual who tenders and renders religion.
- She has written many research Papers and Articles on many News publications about her interpretations of Dasa Sahitya and has become very famous in the whole State